SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

In pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the next of kin, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the "London Gazette" and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as next of kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the dates and places of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded in the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name would be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a justice of the peace. The applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared. Dated this 28th day of February, 1870.

By Order of the said Principal Secretary,

EDWARD LUGARD.

Note—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

1870.

War Office, 1st April, 1870.

The following Regulations and Instructions are promulgated to the Army by direction of the SECRETARY OF STATE FOR WAR.

CONTENTS.

CLAUSE	CLAUSE
42. Gratuities to Soldiers Settling in the Colonies.	45. Copper Powder Measures.
43. Ordnance Mounted in Open Works or Casemates.	46. Returns of Boats.
44. Condemnation of Old Linen, Cotton and Woollen Stores.	47. Regimental Canteens.
	48. Royal Military Academy.

FINANCE.

CL. 42.—Gratuities to Soldiers Settling in the Colonies.

1. Gratuities to soldiers settling in the colonies under the provisions of Clauses 491 and 492, Royal Warrant, 3rd February, 1866, will, in future, be paid locally by the Control Paymaster, without previous reference to this office.
2. He will be responsible that the voucher, representing the issue in his accounts, is supported by a certified record of the soldier's service, by a medical certificate of his fitness to become a settler and by the authority of the general officer commanding or of the governor of the colony.
3. Special reports of these issues will not be required.

EQUIPMENT AND STORES.

CL. 43.—Ordnance Mounted in Open Works or in Casemates.

1. When muzzle-loading rifled guns and carriages are mounted on open works, or in casemates, the parts liable to damage by exposure, viz.—
  - a. The elevating arcs and pinions;
  - b. The front and rear carriage rollers, with connecting bar or socket; should be removed from all guns and carriages, except one or more (at the discretion of the commanding officer) which may be held in readiness for action.
2. When the position of the guns is such that no inconvenience is likely to accrue from some delay in preparing them for action, the screws adjusting and compressor, and levers, &c., may be kept in the Artillery store until wanted for use.
3. The bolts of the platform trucks should be occasionally oiled.
4. Commanding officers of Artillery will be held responsible that officers and men thoroughly understand, and are frequently practised in replacing and adjusting the compressor screws of platforms and carriages from which they may have been removed, to avoid accident on hurried preparation for action.

CL. 44.—Condemnation of Old Linen, Cotton and Woollen Stores.

- Controllers and Commissaries of stores will be guided by the following regulations for the condemnation and disposal of old linen, cotton and woollen stores.
1. No stores will be condemned by the Commissary in whose charge they are, but he will lay aside all articles considered unfit for service, and will bring them to the notice of the Controller at his periodical inspection, and such articles as this officer may, after personal inspection, consider to be unserviceable, will be returned to the reserve depot of the district, unless the Controller should consider it more advantageous to the public to dispose of the stores on the spot.
  2. In the event of an accumulation of stores considered unfit for the service, rendering it desirable to dispose of them before the periodical inspection can take place, the Commissary in charge will report the same to the Controller, who will take the necessary steps to have the stores inspected by an officer from the head-quarters of the district.

3. When unserviceable stores are returned into the reserve depôt, the usual delivery and receipt vouchers (W. O. Forms 1219 and 1220) will be forwarded by the consignor to the Commissary in charge of the reserve depôt; the vouchers will show not only the number and description of the articles, but the gross weight of each kind of linen, cotton or woollen stores. The consignor will strike the articles off his charge by tale, but the Commissary of the reserve depôt will bring them on charge by weight according to their description.

4. When the stores have been condemned they will at once be stamped with the condemned mark (the broad arrow reversed thus  $\times$ ), and weighed in the presence of the inspecting officer. The weights will be recorded and compared with the receipts given by the contractor or other purchaser for the stores delivered to him.

5. At home stations the stores will not be torn up, but will be indelibly stamped in several places with the condemned mark, so as to prevent their being again received into the public depôt.

6. At home stations a general contract for the disposal of the old linen, cotton and woollen stores will be made at the War Office, the particulars of which will be notified to the Controller of each district.

7. At foreign stations the stores will be sold by public auction, and the Controller will exercise his discretion in deciding whether the articles shall be torn up prior to sale, or be disposed of under the rules laid down for home stations.

Cl. 45.—Copper Powder Measures.

1. The Secretary of State for War has decided to withdraw copper powder measures from the "proportions" of Artillery Stores; and only scales and weights for magazine uses, as now in possession, will be retained on Artillery charge.

2. The copper measures in possession of the Royal Artillery will be forthwith returned into the nearest control depôt.

3. Copper measures will be issued to the Royal Navy as heretofore, and for this purpose a sufficient supply will be retained in all depôts from which the Navy is supplied.

4. The copper measures returned into store by the Artillery, as well as those surplus to the naval wants, will be forwarded to the Controller, Royal Arsenal, Woolwich, as opportunities offer.

CONTROL DEPARTMENT.*Cl. 46.—Returns of Boats.

1. The returns (W. O. Form 1167) of the number, nature and description of boats in possession of the several departments of the Army, will be forwarded by controllers direct to the War Office, in time to arrive on or before the 31st October in each year.

2. Clause 92, Army Circulars, 1868, is hereby cancelled.

Cl. 47.—Regimental Canteens.

With reference to paragraph 2, Clause 92, Army Circulars, 1867, the purchase of beer-engines and their appurtenances, will, from 1st April, 1870, be estimated for in, and charged to, the vote for works. The cost of the repair of such engines will fall on the Canteen funds.

Clause 181, Army Circulars, 1869, is hereby cancelled.

ROYAL MILITARY ACADEMY.*Cl. 48.—Examinations for Admission.

1. It is hereby notified, with reference to the new regulations for the Royal Military Academy (printed as an Appendix to Clause 41, Army Circulars, 1870), that the rules therein contained with regard to the subjects for examination of candidates for admission to the Academy will not be put in force until the Midsummer Examination in 1871.

2. The limits of age of candidates will remain as at present (16 to 19 years) until the examination in the winter of 1871-2, when they will be fixed at 16 to 18½ years. As the subsequent examinations the limits will be those fixed by the new regulations, viz., 16 to 18 years.

3. Paragraph 2, Clause 41, Army Circulars, 1870, is hereby cancelled.

G.O. 24.—Establishments—Cavalry at Home.

(Specially issued 17th March, 1870.)

G.O. 45 of 1869 will cease to have effect from the 1st April next, and regiments of Cavalry will, from that date, revert to the troop organization in every respect as formerly, save only as regards the alterations in the establishment, which will be notified by the War Office.

G.O. 25.—Military Districts.

(Specially issued 22nd March, 1870.)

I. The Queen has been pleased to approve of the sub-division of Great Britain into the following military districts, from the 1st April next, viz.:—

1. HOME DISTRICT (Head Quarters, London):—Middlesex; Buckinghamshire; Berkshire; Oxford; Hertford; Bedford; Metropolitan district of Surrey, i.e., the South Census district of London.
2. SOUTH EASTERN DISTRICT (Head Quarters, Dover):—Kent (except Woolwich); Sussex; South Surrey; Tilbury Fort.

3. SOUTHERN DISTRICT (Head Quarters, Portsmouth):—Hampshire (except Aldershot); The Isle of Wight; Dorsetshire; Wiltshire.
4. SOUTH WESTERN DISTRICT:—Devonshire; Cornwall; Somersetshire. 5. WESTERN DISTRICT:—Shropshire; Herefordshire; Montgomeryshire; Radnorshire; Cardiganshire; Pembrokeshire; Carmarthenshire; Glamorganshire; Brecknockshire; Monmouthshire; Gloucestershire.—United under one command, entitled South-Western District. (Head Quarters, Devonport.)
6. EASTERN DISTRICT (Head Quarters, Colchester):—Lincolnshire; Huntingdonshire; Norfolk; Suffolk; Cambridgeshire; Essex (except Tilbury Fort and Purfleet).
7. CENTRAL DISTRICT:—Warwickshire; Worcestershire; Staffordshire; Derbyshire; Nottinghamshire; Northamptonshire; Rutlandshire; Leicestershire. 8. NORTH WESTERN DISTRICT:—Anglesea; Carnarvonshire; Merionethshire; Denbighshire; Flintshire; Cheshire; Lancashire; The Isle of Man. 9. NORTHERN DISTRICT:—Durham; Northumberland; Yorkshire; Cumberland; Westmorland.—United under one command, entitled Northern District. (Head Quarters, Manchester.)
10. ALDERSHOT.
11. WOOLWICH AND PURFLEET.
12. NORTH BRITAIN (including BERWICK-ON-TWEED, Head Quarters, Edinburgh). Divided into three sub-districts, viz.:—1. Edinburgh; 2. Glasgow; 3. Inverness.

II. The new districts are those which in case of active operations for defence, would be created distinct commands.

In ordinary times, the 4th (South-Western) and 5th (Western) districts are to be considered sub-districts and combined in one command, entitled the SOUTH-WESTERN DISTRICT; and the 7th (Central), 8th (North Western), and 9th (Northern) districts are also to be considered sub-districts, and united under one command, with the title of the NORTHERN DISTRICT.

III. The discharge dépôt at Chichester, and the schools of musketry at Hythe, and gunnery at Shoeburyness, are to be excepted from the operation of this General Order; the former will report to the general officer commanding Southern District, and the two schools direct to head quarters.

G.O. 26.—Interior Economy—Depôts.

(Specially issued 22nd March, 1870.)

I. Her Majesty has been pleased to approve of the Cavalry dépôt at Canterbury, and the several dépôt battalions of Infantry, with the exception of one to be temporarily retained, being broken up from the 1st of April next.

II. In lieu thereof, the depôts of regiments of Cavalry, and of battalions of Infantry serving abroad will be severally attached to regiments and battalions serving at home, and will move with them on change of quarters.

III. The officers commanding regiments or battalions to which depôts are attached will stand in the same relative position to the dépôt and the duties connected with it, as the officer commanding a dépôt battalion has occupied under section 8 of the Queen's Regulations.

IV. All officers of the regimental staff will extend their duties in their several departments to the attached dépôt, for instance, the adjutant will supervise the instruction of the recruits, &c.; the paymaster will have in charge the attestations of the entire regiment to which the dépôt belongs; and the quartermaster will have in charge the stores, clothing, necessaries, &c., and will keep for the dépôt the books, and prepare the returns of his department, required by regulations.

V. The captain commanding the dépôt will keep the dépôt books and records, prepare the returns and will conduct the correspondence of the dépôt, under the supervision and responsibility of the lieutenant colonel commanding, and will be assisted as heretofore by a dépôt orderly room clerk.

VI. All correspondence relating to the dépôt will be addressed to the officer commanding the regiment to which it is attached (marked dépôt — regiment in upper left-hand corner), who will also countersign and make his observations upon all communications sent from the dépôt.

VII. The officers of a dépôt will take rank, and be brought on the duty roster with the officers of the corps with which they are associated, according to the dates of their regimental commissions, on the principle laid down in paragraph 527 of the Queen's Regulations; but under no circumstance is an officer of the dépôt to assume command of the regiment, although, if regimentally the senior officer present, he would necessarily command the parade of the combined regiment and dépôt.

VIII. It has been ruled that the officers of a regiment and of an affiliated dépôt (not being of another battalion of the same corps) cannot legally sit together as members of a regimental court martial under the 112th Article of War, and, therefore, until a change is made in the law, courts of such description, on which the officers are mixed, will take the form of a detachment court martial under the 118th Article of War.

IX. The officers of the dépôt will be honorary members of the regimental mess, to which they will contribute the annual subscription of eight days' pay, if unmarried, or four days' pay, if married. The regiment will also draw the Queen's allowance for the attached dépôt companies.

X. The officers of the dépôt will not be required to contribute to the band of the regiment to which they are attached, as their subscriptions will be given to their own corps, but the sum of five pounds annually will be granted by the service companies of infantry regiments, as provided in paragraph 533 of the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, for the copying of music for the drummers of the dépôt, and repairing of bugles and flutes.

XI. His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief trusts that officers commanding regiments will act towards the attached dépôts in every respect as if they formed part of their own corps, bearing in mind, that at some future date, when the service companies of their battalions proceed on foreign service, a dépôt will be left at home requiring similar care, possibly from the very corps whose dépôt is at present allotted to theirs.

XII. An additional copy of the General Orders for each month will be sent to each regiment or battalion at home, for the use of the attached dépôt.

G.O. 27.—Milbank Prison.

I. It has been determined that the military prisons named in the margin* shall be broken up on the 1st of April next. On and after that date, all soldiers under sentence of courts martial for lengthened terms of imprisonment, who, under existing circumstances, would have been sent to any of those prisons, will be committed to the military division of Milbank Prison.

II. Soldiers under sentences of regimental courts martial will be committed to provost prisons or certified cells in the district, when such accommodation is available; but if there be no such accommodation, a report should be made to the quartermaster general, with a view to the prisoner's being sent elsewhere.

III. Prisoners will be conducted to their place of imprisonment under charge of prison warders, and dressed in prison clothing, which will be taken back by the warders to their respective stations.

IV. The regimental clothing of prisoners will be kept in charge of their regiments, and on their release from Milbank the non-commissioned officers sent to conduct them back to their corps will take it with them, in order that it may be worn on the journey back.

V. Prisoners intended for commitment to Milbank should not be sentenced to solitary confinement by courts martial, as that prison is conducted on the separate system.

VI. Covered conveyance for prisoners proceeding to Milbank must in all cases be provided. Vans belonging to the Army Service Corps should be employed, when available for this service, otherwise omnibuses, cabs, or cabs may be used. The money required for the expense of such conveyance, as also for cab hire from stations in London to Milbank, will be advanced to the warders by control or district paymasters and entered on the route.

VII. Escorts proceeding to Milbank for prisoners will, in like manner, be provided with conveyance, should the same be rendered necessary owing to their having to carry regimental clothing for such prisoners.

This G. O. is to be substituted for that specially issued on 22nd March, 1870.

* Aldershot, Chatham, Weedon, Southwark, Devonport and Shorncliffe.

(Vide Order in Council, dated 22 Feb., in Gazette of 4 Mar. 1870.)

THAT the system of compulsory retirement be extended to all the higher grades, so as to cause a more even and constant flow of promotion;
 THAT a scheme of retirement be established on a scale more liberal than that now existing, and more duly proportioned to the length of the service of officers;
 THAT the same take effect from the 1st April, 1870.

1. There shall be a fixed establishment of twelve general officers of Royal Marines, to be appointed as follows:—

To the Artillery branch—

1 General.
 1 Lieutenant General.
 1 Major General.

To the Infantry branch—

2 Generals.
 2 Lieutenant Generals.
 5 Major Generals.

2. Every vacancy on the fixed list of general officers in each branch to be filled, as the case may be, by the senior Lieutenant General or Major General of that branch, or by the senior Colonel of that branch on the reserved list, or by the senior Colonel on the serving strength of that branch of the corps, unless there shall be a supernumerary officer, in which case the supernumerary to fill the vacancy.

3. The appointment of Colonel of Division to be abolished.

4. Compulsory retirement to be extended to all ranks.
